

Marc Furgang

Partner, Senior Regional Manager

Marc Furgang is responsible for partnering with financial advisors and wealth managers to help them identify appropriate solutions for their clients' investment needs. As a Senior Regional Manager, he is focused on serving the wirehouse and regional channels, and plays an active role in training and mentoring new regional managers in the field. He is based in New York City.

Mr. Furgang joined Lord Abbett in 2000 and was named Partner in 2008. His previous experience includes serving as wholesaler for Goldman Sachs. He has worked in the financial services industry since 1996.

Mr. Furgang earned a BA from Ithaca College and an MBA from Baruch University. He also is a holder of the Certified Investment Management Analyst (CIMA) designation.