

Emanuela Scura

Partner, Chief Sustainability Officer

Emanuela Scura is Lord Abbett's Chief Sustainability Officer. She leads the firm's efforts to drive sustainable and equitable growth for stakeholders worldwide. In this role, she collaborates with investment professionals on ESG investing and advances sustainability across all other aspects of the firm's business.

Ms. Scura joined Lord Abbett in 2007 and was named Partner in 2016. Prior to her current role, she served as Chief Operating Officer – Investments providing day-to-day leadership across the Investments organization to ensure alignment with strategic priorities. Prior to that she served as the Deputy Director of Global Credit Research. Her previous experience includes serving as High Yield Analyst at Pax World Funds and Senior Consultant at Ernst & Young Financial Advisors LLP. She has worked in the financial services industry since 2003.

She earned a BA in business administration and finance from Bocconi University and an MBA from New York University's Leonard N. Stern School of Business.