

LORD ABBETT®

Joseph M. Graham, CFA

Senior Managing Director, Investment Strategist

Joseph Graham is an Investment Strategist serving as the client-facing extension of Lord Abbett's Investment team, communicating with institutional clients and prospects regarding asset allocation topics, market environment, current portfolio positioning, and the firm's market outlook. Mr. Graham currently has a focus on high grade and multi-sector fixed income, including convertibles, but also has an extensive background in quantitative tools and equity portfolio management.

Mr. Graham joined Lord Abbett in 2015. Prior to joining the firm, he was a Founder and CIO of two quantitative hedge funds: HudsonView Capital Management and Route 3 Capital; an Analyst and Portfolio Manager at Millennium Partners and at LibertyView Capital Management; and an Investment Banking Associate at Morgan Keegan. He has been in the financial services industry since 1999.

Mr. Graham earned a BS in finance and philosophy Summa Cum Laude from Washington University and an MBA with Honors from the Wharton School of Business at the University of Pennsylvania. He is also a holder of the CFA® (Chartered Financial Analyst) designation.
