

Mary Ann Picciotto

Partner, Global Chief Compliance Officer

Mary Ann Picciotto leads Lord Abbett's global compliance program, overseeing all aspects of its current compliance efforts, while positioning these capabilities for the future as the firm navigates the global regulatory environment, operates in new jurisdictions, and expands its product offerings. She also serves on the firm's Operating Committee.

Ms. Picciotto joined Lord Abbett in 2023 and was named Partner in 2023. Her previous experience includes serving as Vice President, Head of Global Compliance at T. Rowe Price Group, Inc.; Senior Vice President, Head of Compliance at OppenheimerFunds, Inc.; various roles at Morgan Stanley Investment Management including Managing Director, Global Head of Compliance and Chief Compliance Officer; and various roles at PricewaterhouseCoopers including Manager, Senior Associate, and Associate. She has worked in the financial services industry since 1995.

She earned a BBA and MBA in accounting from Pace University's Lubin School of Business and also is a licensed certified public accountant (CPA).